

THE GROUP FOR THE STUDY OF EARLY CULTURES AT UC IRVINE PRESENTS ITS FOURTH ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

SPEAK, WRITE, PAINT

Colonial Scripts and Indigenous Literacies in Latin America

Friday, February 19, 2010
Humanities Gateway 1010

Co-sponsored by the International Center for Writing and Translation, the Center for Ethnography, the Office of Undergraduate Study, the Center in Law, Culture, and Society, and the History Department. Free and open to the public.

10:AM–12:30 | PRESENTATIONS

“Conflicting Nahua and Spanish Accounts of the Conquest of Mexico in the Florentine Codex”

KEVIN TERRACIANO, History, UCLA

“Atahualpa’s ‘Encounter with the Word’ Revisited Two Decades Later”

PATRICIA SEED, History, UCI

“Objects/Records/Memories: Colonial Andean Literacies”

CAROLYN DEAN, History of Art & Visual Culture, UC Santa Cruz

2:00–3:30 PM | COMMENTARY

IVETTE HERNÁNDEZ-TORRES, CHAIR
Spanish & Portuguese, UCI

RACHEL SARAH O’TOOLE
History, UCI

ADRIANA MICHELE CAMPOS JOHNSON
Comparative Literature, UCI

ALKA PATEL
Art History, UCI

5:00–6:30 PM | RECEPTION

Home of Jane O. Newman, 16 Eliot Court

ORGANIZED BY RACHEL SARAH O’TOOLE
rotoole@uci.edu